Keynote Speaker

October 9, 2021

Canon Lydia Kelsey Bucklin

“Setting the table: preparing the feast...”

Our heartfelt gratitude to
Canon Lydia Kelsey Bucklin
for sharing her time, wisdom,
and passion with us.

Lydia Kelsey Bucklin serves as Canon to the Ordinary for Discipleship & Vitality in the Episcopal Diocese of Northern Michigan. She was formed from a young age in baptismal, collaborative ministry and works with communities in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan to discover fresh, creative ways of being church in the world. Lydia served 10 years in the Diocese of Iowa with children & youth, young adults, communications, evangelism, and new initiatives, including co-founding the “Breaking Bread” community, a pop-up church in the Des Moines area. Lydia serves as the House of Deputies Chair of the 2022 General Convention Legislative Committee for Congregational & Diocesan Vitality and is a 2021 Seeds Fellow for Faithful Innovation through Luther Seminary.
