- Where will I be staying? How do I make my lodging arrangements?

The host congregation, St. Mary's, provides for delegate lodging. Members of St. Mary's open their homes as host families. When you arrive, St. Mary's will have a lodging list and introduce you to your host family. You may make your own arrangements at a local hotel at your own cost; you will also be responsible for transportation to/from hotel & St. Mary's.

- How will I get to St. Mary's from the airport?

St. Mary's will provide transportation to/from the airport. The Bishop's staff will provide arrival/departure date/times of flights to St. Mary's based on the travel agents bookings. If you have travel changes, in route, please contact St. Mary's at is 907-563-3341.

- Will I have to pay for my meals?

Meals will be provided by the host congregation per the schedule. The registration fee covers cost of meals, host provided housing, airfare & ground transportation to/from the airport. Meals while in route are your responsibility.

- What committee will I be on?

Committee assignments are made by the Bishop and his staff. Every attempt is made to follow the choices indicated on your registration form. The Committee assignments will be part of the delegate packets that are distributed at Convention Registration.
